Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1 - 9, drawn to ion exchange materials, classified in class 521, subclass 27.
- II. Claims 10 - 12, drawn to manufacturing ion exchange membranes, classified in class 521, subclass 28.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions of Group II and Group I are related as process of making and product made.

The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by the materially different processes of extrusion molding, injection molding or compression molding.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

2.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: ion exchange materials comprising various binders and methods of manufacturing ion exchange membranes.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1 and 10 are generic.

If Group I is elected applicant is required to elect an ion exchange material wherein a single binder is specified. For example, a proper election could be "a heterogeneous ion exchange material wherein the binder is an ultra low density polyethylene prepared in the presence of a Ziegler-Natta catalyst". Applicant is advised that some of the binders listed in the claims are generic, e.g. the "polyolefin" of binder (i). If such a binder is elected applicant is required to name the polyolefin such as polyethylene, polypropylene etc.

If Group II is elected applicant is required to elect a single ion exchange material as for Group I above and in addition to specify a single method of preparing a membrane, e.g. extrusion molding, injection molding, compression molding etc.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
